Did you know that you are a traveling ____ (1), confined to a body like a driver confined to his car seat? Your story began long before, when you made a ____ (2) with your Lord. You have a mission with a set time to complete, and if you succeed, in ____ (3) you shall find your great reward. You do not want to fail, or else you will be severely humiliated and thrown in ____ (4). This is a serious matter and not a game; believe or deny is your choice. If you truly believe, you will be guided to the ____ (5), the only path to success. I am not your enemy, but he is, and he wants you trapped in his ____ (6). You are probably already trapped, because you followed his ____ (7), propelled by your ____ (8). What I am warning you about is all around you, in front of your eyes, but you can't see it clearly without the ____ (9). I advise you to learn from the ____ (10), they are the best, and all what you earn goes into your ____ (11). Nothing is missed or ignored, not even what you hide in your ____ (12). Hurry up! At any moment your time might end, or the ____ (13) might strike. Eventually, you will be sent back to ____ (14) station, then back to your Lord for ____ (15). There, your life's performance will manifest, when it is time to cross the ____ (16). You should know all of this, but if you don't, then read my book. Reading is very important, especially because we are living in a ____ (17)!
